Biography

Mr. Marichal Aponte, co-founder of Marichal Hernández LLC, is a seasoned attorney with over 40 years of experience, specializing in transactional practice, tax law, corporate law, estate planning, and succession law. His extensive career has had a profound impact on the Puerto Rican economy, particularly across various business sectors.

After earning his J.D. from the University of Puerto Rico, School of Law, and a B.B.A. from the University of Puerto Rico, Río Piedras Campus, Marichal began his career in the tax department of Arthur Andersen & Co., advancing to a senior tax role and then as a tax attorney, setting the stage for establishing his practice.

In 1988, Marichal Aponte co-founded Marichal Hernández LLC. His initial focus on litigation in commercial cases evolved into a transactional practice, where he became a pivotal advisor in mergers, acquisitions, and multi-million-dollar business transactions.

Marichal Aponte has played a crucial role in supporting Puerto Rico's agricultural industries, particularly the dairy sector. His efforts in this sector have been instrumental in shaping policies and strategies critical to its development. Additionally, he has actively advised emerging entities and local venture capital funds, demonstrating his commitment to business growth and innovation.

Marichal chairs the audit committee as an external director in a Farm Credit Act chartered agricultural credit cooperative, showcasing his proficiency in managing complex financial and corporate governance challenges.

His vast experience has provided invaluable service to his clients and left a significant mark on Puerto Rico's legal, agricultural, and business sectors.
