General Background

Mrs. Galíndez Velázquez, a capital member at Marichal Hernández LLC since 2024, joined the firm in 2015 and has since established herself as an adept attorney-at-law and former certified public accountant. Her extensive expertise encompasses corporate law and governance, taxation, tax incentives, and estate planning. Galíndez Velázquez is recognized for her strategic insights, advising private businesses and individuals on business succession planning, ownership transfers, and healthcare service provider structuring.

Her combined knowledge of law and accounting allows her to offer comprehensive services, particularly in international and domestic business tax planning. She specializes in cross-border expansions, joint ventures, mergers, acquisitions, and tax incentive negotiations. Galíndez Velázquez also provides crucial guidance to physician groups and healthcare organizations, assisting them in operational and corporate structuring for effective entity management and long-term planning.
