General Background

Mr. Torres Soto, an attorney-at-law at Marichal Hernández LLC, has developed a robust legal practice since 2008. His principal areas of practice encompass taxation law, estate planning, corporate law, contracts, real estate, non-profits, commercial transactions, tax incentives, and tourism and hospitality. As a former certified public accountant, Torres leverages his combined knowledge of law and accounting to support businesses in strategic decision-making, guiding corporate reorganizations, mergers, conversions, and acquisitions. His proficiency in securing tax incentives and negotiating with the Puerto Rico Department of Economic Development, the Puerto Rico Treasury Department, and the United States Internal Revenue Service has been pivotal for his clients.

Torres' capabilities extend beyond transactional work into general commercial and civil litigation, where he navigates clients through wealth management and tax planning, providing tailored advice that aligns with their financial goals. He is also involved in project development in manufacturing, real estate, and hospitality, offering comprehensive legal oversight from a project's initiation through its final execution. His client-centered approach and dedication to tailoring solutions that meet diverse needs have established him as a valuable counselor in the legal field.
